

Hoofbeat

April 2019

The first order of business was upcoming clinics. The Friday night before the June show a clinic will be offered by Kyle Simmons. Cost will be $25 per rider. All riders of all levels are welcome to participate. More details will come. A 4H clinic in May is also in the works.

Halter registration needs to be turned in NO LATER than 8:30 on the day of the show. This will give the show secretary time to print out all necessary paperwork for the judge, announcer, and gate person.

Please remember when riding in a class on the rail, if your horse is faster than another, pass on the inside, not between the slower horse and the rail.

In trail classes you are allowed only 3 tries at an obstacle and then you must move on.

In pattern classes, be promptly at the cone waiting your turn to keep the show moving. The gate person will ask you to wait in line as to the order on the paper she receives from the show secretary. Please do as she says.

The Hairy Horse contest was fun, bringing in $45 for our youth. Please participate in their next event: water glass pleasure class. This will be held before the western pleasure classes. Any attire is welcome.

T-shirts and caps will go on sale this Saturday. You must pay when you place your order. You can also order online. The June show will be a t-shirt show during which you can wear a CC shirt or traditional dress.

We all enjoyed the delicious food at the potluck. Get busy and bring your good food again. We eat at 6 this Friday night.

If you come late Friday night and stalls have been opened for you, please don't wait till the end of the show to pay for them.
